COMMIT TO MEMORY...

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds.
~ Hebrews 10:24

BIBLE VERSE MATCH UP

Let's test of memorization skills.

Draw lines between the citation and the first few words of the past few monthly memory verses.

PRAYING FOR REVIVAL

Now may the God who gives perseverance and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus; that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ... Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. (Romans 15:5-6, 13)

"I heard Ruth's having a luncheon...let's go."

By the time you read this article it will be one year since we left the Warwick area and moved to Pennsylvania. Can you believe it? We have established ourselves in a good church nearby in Hershey. Vinny and I were very hesitant at first (me, mostly) because there were over 3000 people attending there in the two services on Sunday mornings. My father pastored a small church, we attended small churches, and I LIKE small churches, so it was a real struggle to contemplate attending a LARGE church...However, the Pastor was an excellent speaker and we also enjoyed the music in praise time. Another important consideration was that the Bradys were attending there. We decided to give it a try also.

We joined a Sunday School class and met many couples who greeted us warmly. We were invited to a small group and met more wonderful Christian people. I have volunteered in various areas in the Church and answer telephones when the Church receptionist needs time off. There are 45 extensions and it really is wild when three or more calls come in at the same time. I am part of a follow-up team when visitors attend. What I enjoy most is hostessing lunches and I have been doing a great deal of that down here with the various women's groups. The transition was not an easy one and we still miss all of you, but life does go on and there is work to be done for the Kingdom in PA as well as NY.

The Lord has been so good to us even in the direction of the home we bought. We learned a few months after we moved here that the people across the street from us attend the same church and small group and they have become very good friends. How wonderful that He led us to just the right home..

Now for our other neighbors.....THE COWS.....they are very quiet neighbors but sometimes if the wind is blowing just the right way (actually, the wrong way) we are very aware of their presence. I did a bit of research on cows and did you know that a cow has a four-compartment stomach? For what purpose? She grazes on the grass, swallows it and then later on regurgitates what she has eaten and chews it over again, and repeats this process several more times until what she has eaten has become a part of her. Disgusting, you might think!!! No...it is part of the process in the making of her milk....I was thinking also that we, as Christians, would be smart to imitate the cow....not with our daily food, but with God's word...we hear it from the pulpit on Sundays and we should think about it (ruminate) on Monday, bring it up in our memories again on Tuesday and Wednesday, talk about it with our families, until it becomes a part of us. One verse that comes to mind is.Col.3:16, Paul states "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly". Another is found in Deut. 6:6 & 7 –"These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Talk about them when you sit at home, and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up".(NIV)

In closing, if you are ever in our area, (they say Hershey is the sweetest place on earth) be sure to call us and visit us. Our doors and arms are always open to you, dear friends.

A THOUGHT FROM THE WORD

By Scott Webber

In John 5:24, Jesus says, " He that hears my word and believes on Him who sent Me, shall not come into condemnation, but be passed from death to life." (A good verse to memorize!)

This is a great verse for assurance for salvation. If we agree with what the Bible says about our sin (we hear His Word), and believe in God to forgive sins (believes on Him who sent Me), he/she shall not condemned, but has already passed from death unto life. Something that has happened in the past tense! The moment we have eternal life – accept what He says here – when doubts arise about your salvation, based upon what He says...

You now have eternal life.
That settles it.
Take God it His Word.
Tell the devil to get lost.
